Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Applicant submits herewith the art listed below of which the Applicant is aware, which the Applicant believes may be material to the examination of the subject application and in respect of which there may be a duty to disclose in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.56. This citation of information, also appearing on the attached Form PTO-1449, "List of Art Cited by Applicant" is made pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §§ 1.56, 1.97, and 1.98.

A copy of the art listed below is enclosed herewith, unless the art is cumulative as noted below, or the art is a pending U.S. Patent Application, or the art has been cited in a prior application from which an earlier filing date is claimed for the subject application, the earlier application noted below.

The filing of this Information Disclosure Statement shall not be construed as a representation that a search has been made, an admission that the information cited is, or is considered to be, material to patentability, or that no other material information exists. Further, the filing of this Information Disclosure Statement shall not be construed as an admission against interest in any manner.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.98, as amended March 16, 1992, no explanation of the relevance of the English language references is presented.

RECEIVED

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a formal address, and it is the first of its kind since the signing of the Constitution. The President, James Buchanan, is addressing the Congress, and he is doing so in a very formal and dignified manner. He is discussing the state of the Union, and he is discussing the issues that are facing the country at that time. He is also discussing the role of the President, and he is discussing the responsibilities of the Congress.

The agent signing below is making this Information Disclosure Statement on the basis of information supplied by the inventor, an individual associated with the filing and prosecution of the subject application and/or information in the agent's files. The citation of this information does not constitute either an admission of priority or a waiver of any right applicant may have under applicable statutes, Rules of Practice in patent cases, or otherwise.
